Welcome, Opening Prayer, and *Call to Worship

Rev. Emily Flemming

We confess that we have denied the authority of those at the margins, limiting their gifts.

We have locked away their power and have chosen to hide their pain.

But nothing is veiled that will not be revealed, nothing hidden that will not be made known.

We have undermined the authority of the marginalized and have feared those who are not like us.

We have refused to know our own weaknesses, locking away parts of ourselves.

We have refused to know our strengths and resisted the Wisdom of God.

We have turned aside from her image and hidden our knowledge of her. But have no fear:

Nothing is veiled that will not be revealed, nothing hidden that will not be made known.
