*Call to Worship Joan Foster

We gather today, knowing the journey from hardship to hope is long.

We are ready to take the next step towards healing and growth.

Life has shaken our foundations, scattered expectations, and left us feeling vulnerable.

So we seek God's presence, who loves and protects us.

We trust in transformation, as we reclaim our strength and agency.

We are not simply victims of our past, but authors of our future.

Today we worship God, who blesses our work and lights our way.

God empowers us to practice courage, find connection, and redefine our reality with hope.
